AIDS DAY RALLY

1-12-2023

On 01-12-2023, the NSS Units of Sri ASNM Government College(A), Palakol, actively participated in observing AIDS Day. The initiative aimed to raise awareness about HIV/AIDS in the local community, emphasizing prevention, education, and dispelling myths surrounding the disease. The primary components of the event included a rally conducted in Palakol and awareness programs in two adopted villages, namely Adavipalem and Yallavanigaruvu. Dr. V. Vijaya Lakshmi, Program Officer (PO) for NSS Unit-1, and Dr. M. Rama Krishna, PO for NSS Unit-2, played pivotal roles in organizing and executing the activities.

The day commenced with a vibrant rally in Palakol, where NSS volunteers, under the guidance of Dr. V. Vijaya Lakshmi and Dr. M. Rama Krishna, actively engaged with the community. The rally aimed to create a visible impact and draw attention to the significance of AIDS awareness. Participants carried placards, banners, and distributed informational pamphlets to the public, emphasizing the importance of safe practices and dispelling misconceptions related to HIV/AIDS.

The NSS Unit-1, led by Dr. V. Vijaya Lakshmi, organized an impactful awareness program in Yallavanigaruvu. The program included informative sessions, interactive discussions. Volunteers addressed the community, emphasizing the need for regular health check-ups, safe practices, and eradicating the stigma associated with HIV/AIDS.

NSS Unit-2, under the guidance of Dr. M. Rama Krishna, conducted an awareness program in Adavipalem.. The program mirrored the structure of the event in Adavipalem, focusing on educating villagers about HIV/AIDS prevention. Volunteers actively engaged with the community, fostering a sense of responsibility towards health and well-being.

Both Dr. V. Vijaya Lakshmi and Dr. M. Rama Krishna, as Program Officers, provided valuable leadership throughout the event. Their expertise in coordinating such programs and their commitment to community welfare were evident in the success of the AIDS Day observance. Their involvement ensured that the activities were well-organized, focused, and aligned with the overarching goal of spreading awareness.

The AIDS Day observance by Sri ASNM Government Degree College, Palakol NSS Units, was a commendable effort in raising awareness about HIV/AIDS. Through the rally in Palakol and the informative programs in adopted villages, the NSS Units effectively reached out to the community, fostering a sense of responsibility, dispelling myths, and encouraging a proactive approach towards health. The leadership of Dr. V. Vijaya Lakshmi and Dr. M. Rama Krishna significantly contributed to the success of the event, reinforcing the college's commitment to community service and societal well-being.
